

Week 6: Related to time

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. January: The first month of the year.2. England: A country in Europe where people speak English.3. Design: A plan or drawing for how something will look or work.4. Bruise: A dark mark on your skin from getting hurt.5. Awkward: Feeling uncomfortable or clumsy.6. Picnic: Eating food outside, usually on a blanket.7. Bicycle: A two-wheeled vehicle you pedal to move.8. Triple: Three times as much or three parts.9. Trilogy: Three stories or books that are connected.10. Trinity: A group of three things or people.11. Duplicate: To make a copy that looks exactly the same. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">12. Quadruple: Four times as much or four parts.13. Unicycle: A bike with only one wheel that you pedal.14. Duplex: A house made of two separate homes.15. Uniform: Clothes that make everyone look the same.16. Quartet: Four people who sing or play music together.17. Quadrant: One of four equal parts of a circle.18. Octave: The space between one musical note and the next one with double the sound.19. Rhythm: A pattern of beats or sounds in music.20. Cadence: The way music or speech rises and falls in sound. |
|---|---|

Week 6: Related to time

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. January: The first month of the year.2. England: A country in Europe where people speak English.3. Design: A plan or drawing for how something will look or work.4. Bruise: A dark mark on your skin from getting hurt.5. Awkward: Feeling uncomfortable or clumsy.6. Picnic: Eating food outside, usually on a blanket.7. Bicycle: A two-wheeled vehicle you pedal to move.8. Triple: Three times as much or three parts.9. Trilogy: Three stories or books that are connected.10. Trinity: A group of three things or people.11. Duplicate: To make a copy that looks exactly the same. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">12. Quadruple: Four times as much or four parts.13. Unicycle: A bike with only one wheel that you pedal.14. Duplex: A house made of two separate homes.15. Uniform: Clothes that make everyone look the same.16. Quartet: Four people who sing or play music together.17. Quadrant: One of four equal parts of a circle.18. Octave: The space between one musical note and the next one with double the sound.19. Rhythm: A pattern of beats or sounds in music.20. Cadence: The way music or speech rises and falls in sound. |
|---|---|